The Potentate's Message

Fellow Nobles,

Congratulations to Imperial Sir James R. "Jim" Smith and our new Imperial Divan Officers.

We held the first ever Virtual Imperial Session in Shriners history and it was a success.

Are you excited about the opening of our new home? The contractor is in the final stages prior to turning the facility over to us for occupancy. We anticipate being able to get back together, if allowed by local, state and government authorities. When it is safe to get back together, there will be CDC guidelines in place for any of us who choose to meet in small groups.

Your safety is our first concern.

Mark your calendar to join us on our next VIRTUAL MEETING, it is scheduled for WEDNESDAY, JULY 15 at 7:00 PM. Remember when you log in, you will be placed in a virtual waiting room until validation occurs, then you will be placed into the actual meeting space. While this is not a "Closed" meeting, it is not intended to be open to the public.

Hope to see you all virtually on line.

Stay positive and we will all get through this together.

Stay safe and healthy.

Scottish Rite News

By Worshipful Casey Fletcher 32°, KCCH

The degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite and other appendant bodies are rich with symbolism and lessons regarding ethical and virtuous conduct. Multiple volumes of philosophical literature supplement these degrees to aid the search for Light and Truth.

Masonic studies can be never-ending, and it is just as well. Being a good Mason (or citizen, father, brother, husband, et. al.) is not a fixed destination – it is a journey. What seemed to matter most to our ancient brethren was not whether rank and title were successfully achieved in life, but what sort of person a man is and is becoming.

All the degrees and literature lead a Mason back to “from whence we came,” to the third degree and its Hiramic Legend. It is indeed a legend. As A.E. Waite (1857-1942) in his New Encyclopedia of Freemasonry reminds us “The legend of the Master Builder is the allegory of Masonry. It happens that his figurative story is grounded on the fact of a personality mentioned in the Holy Scripture, but this historical background is... not the essence; the significance is in the allegory and not in any point of history...”

Much effort has been undertaken (and ink spilled) to interpret the Legend as a reference to the execution in 1314 of Jacques de Molay of the Knight Templars, the 1649 execution of King Charles the First of England or to the crucifixion of the Nazarene at the beginning of the common era.

Yet these interpretations speak in terms of some historical event, not as Waite’s allegory.

Searching for the allegory, perhaps, starts with recalling that Hiram’s station in a Lodge is represented by the pillar Beauty. Plotinus (204-270) in An Essay on the Beautiful described the refining effect of beauty upon the consciousness of man. He held that for man, being the product of his environment, it was “imperative that every person be surrounded by objects which would evoke the highest and noblest sentiments.” The aesthetic ideals of architecture, music and art, those physical examples of mental nobility, would produce men of equally noble thought and character.

Numerous ancient mystical systems espoused that the beauty of every physical, visible object is but a symbol of some principle or idea; each is a repository of eternal verity. From this concept, the allegory of Freemasonry arises. The beauty and symmetry of the five orders of architecture are not studied because they are pleasing to the eye (or to construct one), but to discover the secrets and lessons they allegorically conceal.

Hiram Abiff represents Beauty. Lessons gleaned from the symbolism of his pillar (and other elements in the Legend) lead to the development of nobler character.

Substantially every degree in Freemasonry points back to or builds upon the allegory of the Master Builder as Beauty. Our ancient brethren offered Hiram Abiff for emulation.

The Valley of Tampa regularly meets at its Center in Tampa on the 2nd Monday of each month at 7:00 PM, subject to the Grand Master's directives. Dinner is served at 5:45 PM.

Chaplain's Corner

By Noble Jefferson C. Lake, Chaplain

Hello My Brothers.

A lot of things have changed since last month's "Sands" and I admit that it is challenging news. Not everything that was planned came to fruition either in our Temple or in our world. We are all being reminded that things will happen in God's own time and not on our planned schedules. This is a hard thing for us humans to accept especially us Shriners that are used to getting things done in a "timely" fashion. When we humans think of "timely", we are used to getting "it" done and then going on to the next project, but that isn't how our Creator works.

God has taken millennia to design the workings and beauty of the universe. Our understanding of time isn't even a drop of water in a bucket compared to our Creator's vast and infinite knowledge.

It is true that all of these "interruptions" to our human schedules are taking a toll on our economy, "our" ways of doing things, and even our nerves. It does have an impact on these things but the important thing to remember in all of this is that it is impacting our very existence as humans.

We like to be in "control" of our own destinies.

We are being reminded that God is in control and not any of us regardless of our desires, money, governments, or political power.

That is all well and Good you may say but where does this leave us and what can we do to "fix" it.

The first thing we should do is slow down and have patience. The second is to remember that we are not in control and let God be God. If we truly want to do "something" then we must search our hearts and minds and listen. Listen to our families, our neighbors, the earth, and the creatures around us. They are telling us what they need. Respond to those needs. Most importantly listen to the small calming voice of our Creator that abides within each of us. God will work God's purposes out. So stay out of the way and let our Creator complete God's plan. Finally take time to respond to the inner workings of God's voice and let us all of help to "Make God Great again". Don't focus on the bad things in our world. Find a way to make things better NOW.

All of this sickness and sadness will pass but in the mean time we are called to be strong men of faith and remember why we all became Masons and Shriners in the first place. Remember those vows!

So my brothers, attend a worship service whether it is in person or on line. Your heart will be lighter and you will be better armed to take on the bad things that are occurring in our country and around the world. Wash your hands, and wear your masks. Be shining examples of what Shriners and Masons can do to lead our families and the community. THINGS WILL GET BETTER. So Let's all do our part to make this world a better place and to "Make God Great Again" Oh and don't forget to pray.

Greetings from the Ridge. Our first dinner and business meeting was held on Wednesday, July 1st. This was our first meeting since the virus began. There were 17 in attendance which was good under the circumstances. On Saturday, July 4th, the club celebrated our Independence Day with a picnic at the club. The Dart club furnished the hamburgers and Hot Dogs and the Club furnished all the rest of the food including desert by our chef Nancy Keaveny. It was an enjoyable afternoon with about 25 to 30 in attendance. Mask were optional and social distancing was observed.

Also, upcoming is our Labor Day Picnic on Monday, September 7th.. Food will again be prepared by our chef Nancy Keaveny. Mark your calendar now and phone in your reservation to the Shrine Club. It will be another fun afternoon of good food and fellowship. Should there be any changes, you will be notified by e-mail from our correspondent, Sissel Carr.

Our Stores have now resumed operation on Saturday Mornings. Also Darts on Friday evening 7PM, Wednesday Morning Coffees 8 to 10 AM and Tuesday evening ladies cards. The monthly newsletter and our website www.highlandsshine.com will keep you updated on special activities during this period.

In closing, We know these are difficult times and your continued support of the Shrine Club and Egypt Shrine is appreciated. We pray for good health and safety for all our Nobles, Ladies, and families of Egypt Shrine. God Bless

Most of us are still here in Sun City Center. Hunkered down to survive the virus.

We have had no meeting since February. The Community Hall, managed by the Sun City Center C/A had advised they do not foresee opening the Community Hall for the remainder of 2020 for group meetings and lunches.. We have not held a Board Meeting since then but do plan to meet during the summer. Our Spring Pancake Brunch was cancelled and the Fall Pancake Brunch will not be held for lack of facilities.

In May Noble Joe Lang was met by the black camel. No services were held.

If you have not paid your dues for 2020, We encourage you to do so. If you have any question please call Noble Don Churchill 642-0844.

Until we have the opportunity to meet again. Enjoy your summer the best you can. Wear your mask.

Passed within the Unseen Temple,

Life is a story in volumes three.

The past, the present, yet to be.

The first we've written and laid away.

The second we're reading day by day.

The Book of Gold was established in memory of Noble Morton Glenn Henderson by Mrs. Henderson in July of 1969 for Shriners and Non-Shriners who wish to make a memorial contribution in the name of a loved one, close friend, or fellow member in the amount of $50.

The person's name is then entered in the Book of Gold which is on display in the Egypt Shrine Chapel. It presently has over 400 names and is updated quarterly.

This memorial gift benefits the Egypt Shrine Building Fund and is not tax deductible. Please consider this lasting way to remember a loved one by supporting the Book of Gold and your fraternity.

See information and application form here, or contact the Shrine office for further information.
