

EGYPT SHRINERS PROVOST GUARD UNIT

Many of the members of the Egypt Shrine Provost Guard Unit have experience in law enforcement however, that is not a requirement for membership.

The Provost Guard Unit is the Temple's police force. No, they do not investigate missing food from the buffet line; they spend their time establishing a smooth traffic flow at Shrine events and parades and keeping order when requested. The Nobles of this group have learned how to do a job and have a great deal of fun doing their job.

Every year this Unit holds a Country Western Dance which is well attended by the Shrine Membership. There is no doubt that this is the most pleasant group of cops in the area.

Prerequisite for joining – Must be a member of Egypt Shriners.

We meet on the third Thursday of the month in the Provost Guard Unit Room at 7:30 P.M. at the Shrine location.
